THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR. NO. 1.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1912.

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

DEATH OF MRS. JAMES GREGG

Mrs. James Gregg died suddenly of heart trouble at her home on the Clinton and Xenia pike, at 6 o'clock Monday evening. She had not been well for a few days, having suffered an attack of indigestion, but was able to be up and about the house, and dropped dead while attending to some simple household duty.

Mrs. Gregg was 60 years of age and was Miss Mary McCollum, and she was born and passed all her life in Gr. Co. county. Ever since their marriage forty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Gregg lived on the farm where she died. Mrs. Gregg leaves her husband, and two brothers and a sister: Joseph and John McCollum, and Miss Matilda McCollum, who reside in the same neighborhood. She was a member of the Reformed Presbyterian church.

Funeral services were held at the house at one o'clock Wednesday. Burial at Masses creek cemetery. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. M. J. Taylor.

Village School Board Organizes.

A meeting of the Cedarville Village School Board was held Monday afternoon at which time an organization was effected for the present year.

Mr. J. E. Hastings was chosen president, Postmaster Wright, vice president, and J. W. Johnson, clerk. This board meets the fourth Friday of each month.

Mr. J. E. Hastings and Rev. W. E. Putt, D. D., were the members elected at the last election but Dr. Putt did not qualify and notified the board of his resignation. The vacancy will be filled at the next meeting.

Irvin Indicted For Murder.

Robert Irvin, government gun inspector, who shot and killed Sinclair Gentry at the home of John B. Stevenson, on December 23, was indicted for first degree murder according to a report of the grand jury filed Wednesday. The grand jury recommended that the commissioners increase the reward of $100 already offered.

L. C. McLeod, charged with keeping a hand bag containing money, that belonged to Mrs. S. B. Baker was charged with grand larceny.

The murder trial of Elmer Johnson, who stabbed Esther Lucas, has been set for January 29.

Frank Baker, indicted for murder of George Tharr, will have his trial on February 13. A special venire of thirty-six names has been drawn for each trial.

Former Officers Are Elected.

The members of the Cedarville Township Board of education met in the clerk's office Monday for organization.

Mr. J. H. Stormont, who has for several years served faithfully as chairman of this body, was honored again by re-election. Mr. Andrew Jackson, township clerk, also becomes clerk of the board.

The board will meet the last Friday of each month.

The Dawn of Another Year
Is now upon us. It opens up the prospect of good health only on "one condition" and that is:

You Must Use Our Flour to Insure Health
The condition is easy, the flour is unsurpassable, and by using it at the year's sunset you'll still be here.

Hogan Will Conduct Jury.

Probes by the October grand jury of alleged election frauds in the Fourth Ward, which resulted in no indictments, have precipitated a grand jury investigation to be conducted personally by Attorney General Hogan, announcement of which, to be held during the January term of court, was made by Judge C. H. Kyle Tuesday. Judge Kyle in charging the January grand jury, told the body it probably would be called upon for the investigation, a date for which may be fixed within the next few weeks.

The following is the grand jury: M. F. Barrows, foreman; Robert McNamee, Charles Hackett, W. H. Dones, John W. Fudge, Robert S. Townsley, John C. Spahr, John Donnan, Martin A. Oster, Adam F. Long, Warren Robinson, Aaron Devoe, M. F. Beal, James Shane and Henry Binder.

Dates Set For Institute.

Dates have been announced for the local Farmers' Institute which will be held on Monday and Tuesday, January 29 and 30. The state speakers will be S. J. Baldwin of Talmage, Summit county, and R. A. Hayne, Adena, Jefferson county.

Another feature of the institute will be an address on a domestic science subject on Tuesday by Miss Pearl Dorsey of Mountsville, W. Va. Mr. H. N. Coe is president of the institute and Mr. J. H. Stormont, secretary. A complete program will be arranged in a few days.

Salary Allowances Are Decreased.

Judge Kyle refused to grant the additional salaries for salaries of deputies and clerks of the auditor, clerk of court and register. These salaries were increased last year to what the commissioners had allowed and Judge Kyle clipped off $500 of the amount asked.

The auditor asked for $738 additional this year but was only allowed $335. The clerk of court was given $289, making the salary of the deputy $900, when $1,200 was wanted. The recorder asked for $333 but this was cut down to $183.

The commissioners are facing a deficit of about $40,000 and Judge Kyle refused to grant the full amounts for this reason.

BACK AMONG THE FILES.

The following paragraphs may be of interest to many as they were taken from the files of the Herald as recorded several years ago.

February 7, 1891.
Marriage License—J. C. Williamson and Lida McClellan.

The Anderson, Ind., Herald states that Charles Jones of Cedarville will sign with a base ball team in that city. His record at that time was twenty-seven in a struck out in one game and the Anderson paper refers to the local pitcher as "Ohio Cyclone."

The Shakespeare Club held an open meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. R. F. Kerr, twenty-five being present. Mrs. E. C. Oglesbee presided with her accustomed grace and dignity.

February 14, 1891.

The farmers of Cedarville township are in favor of good roads and are signing petitions asking the legislature to grant an extra tax of one mill for road purposes. Petitions are left at Stormont & Co. and Robert Gray.

The revival at the M. E. church grows in power. Heads of families are being reached, and the outlook is most encouraging for a wonderful reformation. Every one is invited to attend these meetings.

A tobacco shed on Roland Kyle's farm was burned Wednesday morning with the contents, 7000 pounds of tobacco. On Tuesday morning Mr. Kyle upon going to the barn discovered a small fire but as it had not made much headway it was easily extinguished. The fire was supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Hon. Andrew Jackson is a member of the legislative committee who are in New York this week examining the system of conducting the reformatory of that state, located at Elmira.

Council met in regular session Monday evening with Mayor Twinsley in the chair. The members present were: Van Horn, Shall Orr, McFarland and Barr. Bills to the amount of $51.43 were allowed. Wm. Mitchell was ordered to take down a fence across a public alley.

February 13, 1891.

James McMillan has returned from Bloomington, Ind., and resumed her work as teacher in the Kyle district.

A double wedding is reported to be in prospect in a short time in Cedarville.

The old Charlton flour mill is being overhauled and the new process machinery is being put in by the firm of Harbison and Stormont, the latter having entered into partnership just lately. The mill has been operated with burrs and as far as we know there is but one left, the Grinnell mill in this county.

C. A. Little, of Yellow Springs, was arrested by the Ross township trustees for hauling more than 2,000 pounds over the pike during the rainy season with only a three inch tread Squire McDorman.

February 23, 1891.
Three desperate characters made their escape from the workhouse last Sabbath afternoon, knocking down Superintendent Todd. Those who escaped were William Carter, George Jones and Charles Justice. Justice was shot in the head by a boy who had taken up the chase, all three of the men being captured several hours afterwards.

Genial Dick Nisbet, compositor on the Anderson, Ind., Herald, spent the week in Cedarville. Dick is accounted the handsomest young man in that city and many a young heart beats patriotically for Anderson's fair misses see the brilliant Richard meander about their busy city. He has been on his good behavior while here, however, with the exception of a few silly flirtations just to keep in practice, his actions have been exemplary. He returns to Anderson Monday.

Mrs. James McMillan came near losing her life this week while driving on the Columbus pike from Selma home. At the railroad crossing the 5 o'clock train struck the carriage overturning it and throwing her out. The horse ran away but Mrs. McMillan was assisted by neighbors who had witnessed the accident. No bones were broken but Mrs. McMillan received a severe shock and it will be some time before she forgets her experience.

NOTICE.
To Whom It May Concern:—
Whereas next week is the Week of Prayer and whereas certain young men who are known to me will in all probability not attend the services, I merely wish to say that I have placed a look on my chief coop door. J. S. E. McMICHAEL.

Tp. Trustees Organized.

The township trustees organized Monday morning. A. H. Crosswell, being elected president. Mr. Andrew Jackson succeeded his son, Frank, as clerk of the township after a long and faithful stewardship of this office. The trustees will meet every two weeks from the Monday meeting. Mr. G. H. Hammond was chosen road superintendent in district No. 1; J. E. Kyle in No. 2; H. H. Stormont in No. 3.

Mr. Frank Jackson will continue to act as manager of the opera house for the trustees.

Lovely Wedding Is Solemnized.

Lovely in all its appointments was the marriage of Miss Gurney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corry, to Frederick Williamson, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on the Clinton pike, at 6:30 Tuesday evening.

One hundred and thirty guests witnessed the ceremony. Rev. Foster of the Clinton Presbyterian church, and the Rev. W. B. Chesney, D. D., of Cedarville officiated. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Florence Williams, with a violin accompaniment by Russell Black.

Following the service a three course supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson started for the morning on a brief trip. They will be home Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Williamson, parents of the bridegroom will entertain two companies in their home.

The newly married couple expect to live for a time with Mr. Williamson's parents, but Mrs. Corry will go to housekeeping in their own home in that neighborhood.

THE REV. IRL L. HICKS 1912 ALMANAC.

Before the publication of 1901, the Hicks Almanac was published to 1911, the Hicks Almanac again sounded a warning of drought danger. And as for forty years this same friend of all the people has steadily refused the offers of speculators and continued to warn the public of the coming dangers of storm and weather. As they should have done, the people have stood nobly by Professor Hicks, their faithful public servant, who has grown old in their service.

IMPLEMENTS TO BE SHOWN

Output of Champion City Factories Makes Big Exposition.

PART OF CORN SHOW

Appropriate Place in Which to Make Agricultural Display, Owing to Great Output of Farm Machinery—Springfield Second Implement Manufacturing City in World and Makes Sixty Per Cent of Ohio Product.

Officers and members of the Ohio Corn Improvement Association consider themselves happy in being able to hold the fourth annual corn show in Springfield, January 16-20.

They consider this the most appropriate place combining as it does the greatest possible importance as an agricultural implement manufacturing center and being the capital, as it were, of the rich farming and stock raising section of Southwestern Ohio.

When the matter of holding the Corn Show in Springfield was first broached, the officers and members of the Convention Committee of the Springfield Commercial Club, that alert body lost no time in accepting the proposition made by the association. The only question was that of space. There were a number of halls which would do but none of them met the expansive ideas of President E. S. Kelly and the other men prominent in the Commercial Club. It was their idea from the first to combine the Corn Show with an Industrial Exposition, the like of which has not been seen there and which will be of far more than ordinary significance owing to Springfield's place in the implement world.

It took but a few days of work on the part of Springfield men to secure the Tabernacle building, used for the six weeks' Evangelistic campaign by Billy Sunday. This energetic movement has received the greatest possible encouragement from the manufacturers of Springfield, who have shown great alacrity in taking space for an exhibit. The importance of this industrial exhibition becomes apparent when it is realized that Springfield manufactures every implement used on the farm, except only the breaking plow and farm wagon. It was foremost in the early history of the reaper. The great names of Whitney, Warder, Kelly, Clessner, Bushnell and Deere, known throughout the agricultural world, belong to Springfield. Whitney, the pioneer inventor of reapers and mowers, died in Springfield less than a year ago, leaving the immense reaper and implement industries of the city as his monument. Springfield is the home of the greatest plant of the International Harvester Co. of the American Reaping Machine Company and many others. It is now generally realized that Springfield is the second city in the world in the manufacture of farm implements, being second only to Chicago. Sixty per cent of all the farm machinery manufactured in Ohio is made in Springfield, where seventeen busy factories turn out the enormous product.

In the exhibition in connection with the State Corn Show, each of these manufacturers will be represented, not only the lines of machinery manufactured on the farms of the middle west will be shown but also many queer machines made for the foreign trade will be on exhibition. Springfield's products go to all parts of the world, and it is no more unusual to go into the office of a Springfield factory and hear the sales manager dictating letters to his representatives in Johannesburg, Melbourne, Christiana, Hong Kong, Moscow, than to hear him addressing his agents in Philadelphia, Tacoma, St. Louis, or New Orleans.

In addition to the implement manufacturers who will have exhibits at the show, there will be in the neighborhood of 175 Springfield manufacturers who will have their products on exhibition. Power will be furnished, and not only will much of the machinery be shown in operation but many of the processes used in the factories will be demonstrated and the actual operation of manufacture be shown. No other city in the United States could, except Chicago, produce an exhibit of as great an educational value to the farmer. Among the numerous inquiries coming to Springfield with reference to the Corn Show, a large proportion ask questions about the industrial exhibit and in other ways indicate the great interest that exists about the State in its feature of the big exposition.

ITS OWN POWER PLANT

An electrical plant installed and operated by a Springfield concern will be used to furnish light and power for the State Corn Show and the Industrial Exposition to be held at Springfield, January 16-20.

The installation will consist of huge gas engines and motors all built in Springfield. Such an installation is being manufactured in great numbers now and the plant will form one of the interesting exhibits at the Corn Show. Electric lighting and power for the farm will be one of the interesting things demonstrated at the exhibit at the exhibition.

Pawn Shop Run by City.
The Dutch pawn shop of Amsterdam, known as Bank van Leening, is under the control of the municipality, and is one of the oldest in the country. Up to 1616 the business was leased by the city to a private company, but as it refused to reduce its interest on pawned articles the city took over the business, and has managed it ever since.

The Big Corn Show

—AT—
Kinnane-Sullivan Co.
Springfield Ohio.

The show opened Wednesday morning, January 3d and continues until Saturday night, January 13, 1912. You have until January 10th to bring in your entries. Another feature, all entries in The Kinnane-Sullivan Co. Show are eligible for entry in the State Show which follows.

The Kinnane-Sullivan Co. is offering $300 in cash prizes this year in addition to a valuable Silver Trophy Cup which was won last year by Mr. O. A. Dobbins of Cedarville. Interest is running high and a record breaking Show is expected.

Bring in your corn, get in the game, see how the other fellow stands up beside you. If you think your corn is too poor to win a prize—bring it any way and find out just how you can improve your crop. Corn Shows are surely a great institution for the farmer and many can testify as to what a wonderful help it has been to them and how they have profited by attending.

Officers and members of the Ohio

They consider this the most appro-the greatest possible importance as an agricultural implement manuas it were, of the rich farming and stock-raising section of southwestern Ohio.

When the matter of holding the

IT HAS DONE MUCH FOR THE CORN CROP

Ohio Corn Improvement Association Has Had Useful Career.

In June, 1907, a committee was appointed by the Ohio Plant Breeders' association for the purpose of submitting plans looking to the organization of a State Corn Improvement association. As a result of this action a meeting was called for Jan.
15, 1908, to which 180 delegates responded, and the organization was effected. A second meeting was held in connection with a Corn Show in Townsend Hall, Ohio State University, Columbus, O., Nov. 23-25, 1908.
Local associations were organized in over 50 counties during the first year after organization. This rapid growth was largely due to the untiring efforts of the secretary, Mr. L. H. Goddard of Wooster, O.

The motto of the association,
"More Bushels of Marketable Corn Per Acre," has ever been kept in the foreground as a spur to greater efforts along the line of corn improvement. The corn variety test was inaugurated as one of the means of increasing the yield. Nearly every local association in the state has taken up this work, and some very valuable results have been obtained.
Some have gone still farther and have conducted ear-to-the-row tests, followed by the breeding plot, or seed corn plot. It would be difficult to estimate the value of these tests in dollars and cents, but there is every evidence that a great interest has been created in the matter of corn improvement.

Three annual Corn Shows have been held since the organization was effected. The first, as mentioned above, was held in Townsend Hall,
Ohio State University, Nov. 23-25, 1908. This was considered a great success from every point of view.
The second one was held in the Lazarus Block, Columbus, O., Jan. 10 and 11, in 1910. The Ohio Horticultural Society was held in connection with the National Corn Exposition at the Ohio State Fair grounds, Columbus, O., Jan. 20 to Feb. 11, 1911.

The fourth Ohio Corn Show, which will be held in the Tabernacle building, Springfield, O., Jan. 16-20, promises to be one of unusual interest.
The Kingsbury Co., Springfield, O., cloves on Jan. 10, will undoubtedly give impetus to the State Corn Show, as many of the exhibits will be passed on from their show to the State Show. The meetings of the association, Jan. 18 and 19, will be promote to all who may attend the speakers of national repute have been secured for the occasion.

The present officers of the association are: President, W. M. Hardman, Yellow Springs; vice president, John Cunningham, Gambier; secretary, D.
W. Galehouse, Wooster; treasurer, C.
S. French, Salina; vice president
Southern division, H. P. Dutton, Hockingport; vice president West
Central division, Howard McCune, Wilmington; vice president Northwestern division, Jas. W. Cook, Forgarding the corn banquet, or any

INTERESTS LODGE MEN.
Three great fraternal orders of Ohio have state homes in Springfield.
These are the homes of the Masons,
Knights of Pythias and the Odd Fellows. These homes naturally attract thousands of visitors to Springfield, and each affords a strong reason why there will be unprecedented attendance at the State Corn Show, which will be held in Springfield Jan. 16-20.

Everybody asks this question after a fire. The next question, which is just as important, "What company?" nobody asks. The property owners of America pay annually $300,000,000 in premiums for fire insurance, but not one in ten knows even the name of the company whose policy may be his only asset in case of disaster. Do you know? If not, what an astonishing state of affairs for an enlightened business-like American citizen. If you do know the name of the company, what do you know of its standing or its reputation for fair dealing?

The Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., for 100 years has paid promptly every just claim—in all, more than $130,000,000. When next you insure, get a "Hartford" policy.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one devoted disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and enabling nature to do its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE RED SQUIRREL.

Ingenious Method by Which He Secures His Pine Cone Rations.

The chickaree, or red squirrel, lives chiefly upon the seeds of the black and the white spruce. His method of operation is ingenious, as would be expected of such a wide awake and enterprising creature.

The cones grow principally at the tops of the spruce trees, and the largest and the finest are always to be found there. The chickaree selects a tree distinguished either for the steepness and density of its upper part or for its leaning to one side, as either of these characteristics makes it certain that the cones, if detached, will fall to the ground.

Then he cuts off the heavily laden twigs and lets them drop. This is done with an impatient rapidity. Should a person be sitting quietly under a tree while one of these busy little creatures is at work at the top he would see the bunches of cones come tumbling down in such quick succession that he might suppose that half a dozen squirrels were at work instead of only one industrious little fellow. These bunches seldom lodge in the branches below, but if the squirrel on his way down notices one of them arrested in a hopeful position toward the end of a bough he will sometimes run out and give it a second sendoff.

Those who have climbed tall spruce trees, especially in Canada, for observations of the surrounding country have often noticed bunches of cones lodged where, if started off a second time, they would be certain to catch again in the thick branches before reaching the ground. The squirrels seem to understand the situation perfectly and leave such bunches to their fate.

The chickaree, having thrown down a sufficient quantity for a few days' use, proceeds to carry them to his favorite feeding place nearby. He peels off the scales in succession and nibbles out the seeds with great rapidity.—Exchange.

Popular Phrases.

Here are a few examples from Basil Hargrave's "Origins and Meanings of Popular Phrases and Names." The phrase "every man Jack of them" is explained as a corruption of the archaic "everich" or "every chon" (every one) into "every John" and then "every Jack." "Hobson's choice" goes back to the seventeenth century—to Tobias Hobson, who kept a livery stable at Cambridge, England, and who "would only let out his horses in strict rotation, saying, 'This or none.'" "Mind your P's and Q's" is said to be a reference to pints and quarts in the old alehouse, and an admonition "not to allow the score to run too long." "Point blank" was the white spot in the center of the target, from the French blanc.
